OFFICER INVOLVED COLLISION WITH PEDESTRIAN EAST BROADWAY BOULEVARD AND SOUTH KOLB ROAD

The Tucson Police Department is currently investigating a traffic collision involving a patrol vehicle and a pedestrian.

On May 24, 2015 at approximately 7:40 A.M., a Tucson Police Officer from Operations Division East was on a dispatched call, transporting a citizen. The officer was traveling westbound on East Broadway and made a left-hand turn on to South Kolb Road. As the officer was completing his turn he collided with a pedestrian who was eastbound, crossing South Kolb Road at the intersection. The officer stopped and immediately began rendering first-aid. Tucson Fire responded to the scene and transported the pedestrian to a local hospital with life-threatening injuries. The pedestrian was treated at the hospital and is now in stable condition according to medical staff. The officer involved and the passenger in his vehicle were both uninjured during the collision. The pedestrian is an adult male in his 20's.

Traffic Detectives responded to the scene to continue the investigation. More information will be released as it becomes available.
